By JAMES LEE

WASHINGTON, May 13.—President Truman in a surprise appointment today named Francis Patrick Matthews, Omaha (Neb.) attorney, as Secretary of the Navy.

Matthews, one of the nation's most prominent Catholic laymen, succeeds John L. Sullivan who resigned in protest against Defense Secretary Louis Johnson's order to abandon work on the navy's super aircraft-carrier.

Undersecretary Named
Mr. Truman also announced appointment of Dan A. Kimball as under secretary of the navy. Kimball is now assistant secretary of the navy. He will succeed W. John Kenney, who resigned as under secretary last week.

The White House said the nominations of Matthews and Kimball to the important defense posts have been sent to the senate. Prompt confirmation is anticipated. Matthews had not been mentioned as a possibility for the "little cabinet" job, which was rejected last week by Jonathan Daniels, North Carolina publisher.

A Democrat with a comprehensive business background as well as wide experience in the practice of law, Matthews is 62.

Hundreds of spiraea bushes around the city are coming out in full bloom.

PA New notes that a new police patrol box has been erected on a downtown street.

New mail boxes are noted on some of the streets in Neshannock township, the route apparently having been extended to some new homes recently.

City drinking fountains downtown were put in service for the summer for the first time Thursday. The fountains will be "iced" to make the water cooler, the first of next month.

A new type of auto conveyance was observed going through the city on Wednesday. The trailer hauling four new cars was closed in on the sides with the top open. Only a portion of the two rear cars could be seen by pedestrians as the truck passed. The system offers more protection to the vehicles being transported.

A bit of dry cleaning would not go amiss on the numerous American flags flying over public buildings about the city. The past winter has placed a fairly good coat of dirt on the flags. When a new flag is placed on an adjoining pole, the contrast is for more noticeable.

Today is the anniversary of the worst automobile accident, which has ever occurred in the county, when five people died as the result of a collision on the newly built Route 422, between the Ohio state line and New Castle.

Cherry street bridge will evidently receive quite a bit more traffic starting next week when a detour is established in the vicinity of West Pittsburg. Railroad workers traveling north from Wampum and Moravia to the B and O yards as well as others

Present Plan Of Participation In Hospital Drive

James M. Smith Jr., president of Shenango Pottery, left listens intently as Dr. Paul H. Wilson, committeeman in the employees division, explains how employees in industry and plants like the Shenango Pottery will be asked to participate in the $595,000 New Castle Hospital building fund campaign. Mr. Smith demonstrates with a giant "blow-up" photograph of the subscription card that will be used in employee solicitation.

Employee Solicitation
Hospital Fund Drive
Plans Are Presented

Volunteer committeemen in the employees division today were prepared to go into industries and business establishments to ask the working men and women of the community to invest in health protection by contributing to the $595,000 New Castle hospital building fund.

More than 60 members of the committee, comprised of civic-minded, enthusiastic workers for the hospital project and representatives of industry and business gathered at The Castleton hotel last night to obtain information on details of the employee solicitation and to see a demonstration of the proposed method to be used.

Group Addressed
Addressing the group, Judge John G. Lamoree, chairman of the employee division, who presided at the meeting said:
"It is most gratifying to see such a fine turnout for this meeting. I know how determined we all are to make this project a success. We know that the men and women who work in the plants and other places throughout New Castle and other parts of the county will want to

Southern Coal
Pact Parley To Start On May 25

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(INS)—The Southern Coal Producers Association and United Mine Workers Chief John L. Lewis agreed today to open negotiations for a new soft coal contract on May 25 at Bluefield, W. Va.
The announcement was made by the Producers association and it represented a partial victory for Lewis in opening separate discussions with the southern group on a new agreement to replace the contract expiring June 30.
Lewis had originally selected the West Virginia site but asked that the discussions start on June 6. Association President Joseph E. Moody later said that he felt the date should be put ahead of the Lewis request.

Probe Shooting Of Naval Officer On Board Carrier

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—(INS)—A U. S. Navy board of inquiry is expected to release its findings today in the fatal shooting of a naval commander aboard the aircraft carrier Antietam at Hunters Point Navy Yard.
Cmdr. Everett O. Riggsbee, Jr., 42, of Fort Stockton, Tex., was found shot to death in his quarters yesterday with a .38 caliber revolver nearby. He recently had been appointed to command the ship while it was undergoing "mothball" treatment as part of the reserve fleet.
San Francisco police said circumstances of the death indicated suicide and pointed out there were powder marks on the right temple.
The navy's brief initial announcement said that Riggsbee died of a gunshot wound in the head.

Sweeping Labor
Losses In Great Britain Voting

By CHARLES A. SMITH

LONDON, May 13.—Sweeping labor losses in Britain's municipal elections brought Conservative claims today that England is turning away from Socialism.

The nationwide local elections cost Labor control of some of its most important industrial strongholds. Almost complete returns showed Labor lost 542 seats on local councils and gained only 77. By contrast, Conservatives won 551 and lost only 24.

The election results shook the confidence of a number of Labor party leaders in their chances of winning next year's general election. Until now, Laborites pointed to their steady stream of victories

Los Angeles Is
Jarred By Quake

LOS ANGELES, May 13.—(INS)—A sharp earthquake which lasted for 30 seconds in some sections jarred Los Angeles and its Metropolitan area today.

No casualties were reported and an immediate survey indicated no damage resulted.

The temblor started at 2:19 a.m. (PST). City hall telephone operators reported that building's tower swayed slightly at about the time the disturbance first was felt.

Dishes rattled and chandeliers swayed in some of the outlying areas, while a deputy sheriff at Temple City said a man who did not identify himself reported that temblor had dumped him out of bed.

Two slight shocks were felt in the southern part of Los Angeles proper, but a number of communities north and south of the city limits reported slightly sharper disturbances.

These included Alhambra, Glendale, Burbank, Montrose, San Gabriel and San Dimas.

Boy Loses Life
Retrieving Ball

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 13.—(INS)—Trying to retrieve a baseball from under a trolley resulted today in the death of 13-year-old James Conn of nearby Juniata.

Police said the boy was crushed when the trolley started up after he had crawled under to recover the baseball.

Conn, with several other boys, were passing the ball around while waiting at the terminal to ride home on the trolley. One of the boys missed the ball and it rolled under the car.

Police said the motorman started the car without knowing the boy was under it.

Communist Advances On Shanghai Front

BATTLE CONTINUES
FOR GREAT PORT CITY

SHANGHAI, May 13.—(INS)—(Censored)—Chinese Nationalists claimed a first round victory in the battle for the important industrial center of Hankow today, but admitted Communist advances on the Shanghai front.

A Shanghai garrison communique asserted that two days of bloody fighting near Hankow ended this morning in the government's favor.

To Stay In Hankow
The U. S. and the other western consular officials, it was said, have decided to remain in Hankow despite the danger. Of the city's foreign colony of approximately 400 persons, about 90 are American and 30 British.

Meanwhile, on the Shanghai front the Communists continued their smashing assaults, driving Nationalist forces from Liuhio, only 19 miles northwest of Shanghai. The garrison admitted Liuhio has been evacuated. Some 10,000 Communist troops drove from Liuhio nine miles westward toward Taichong.

An important part of the defense are around Shanghai, Taichong

Harmony Line
Strike Averted

Strike Scheduled For Today
Is Averted By Eleventh
Hour Agreement

PITTSBURGH, May 13.—(INS)—A strike of AFL drivers of the Harmony bus lines today was averted when the union accepted a six-cent hour wage increase and other contract adjustments.

A strike was scheduled for 5 o'clock this morning after the union rejected earlier proposals.

The agreement was reached last night at a conference called by Federal Mediator Charles R. Ward following which management proposals were accepted by the AFL Motor Coach Employees, division 1067.

Division President Charles Jones said that in addition to the six-cent raise, the settlement also provides a mileage rate percentage increase equivalent to the hourly pay hike.

Also remaining is a two-cent hourly no-accident bonus granted last year, which the company had eliminated from its earlier proposals this year.

Florists Honor National Leader

Left above is H. Rollo Mueller, of Columbia, Mo., national president of the Florists' Telegraph association, as he is greeted in New Castle by Robert A. Weingartner, chairman of the local district number 3 of the organization.

Florists from Western Pennsylvania joined here Thursday night to honor H. Rollo Mueller, national president of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association.

A dinner-dance was held in The Castleton Hotel at which about 100 were present. The dinner program was short, Mr. Mueller being the only speaker.

Mr. Mueller spoke of the cooperation between member florists of the FTD and said that because of this service floral distances had been wiped out in the delivery of floral remembrances. Robert A. Weingartner, president of Unit 3 of the FTD, was the chairman of the evening.

Mr. Mueller's home is in Columbia, Mo. At present he is on a trip across the nation visiting the various units of the association. He was met at the Pittsburgh airport and brought to New Castle.

Today he left for Youngstown and from there goes to Richmond, Va., and New Orleans, La., on his return trip to Columbia.

The federal communications commission has issued a license to Pennsylvania Power company for land radio stations and sixty mobile units for use by the company in its service to this area.

The application granted covers a transmitter near New Castle and one near Zelienople. Applications are pending for units in the Sharon and Greenville divisions.

The two-way radio system will provide communication between the company's service headquarters and its line trucks and other service vehicles while they are on the job. The company's lines cover practically every section of the area served, over 95% of farms in the area being connected to the lines.

Customers, particularly in the rural areas, are becoming more and more dependent upon electric service every hour of the day and night, in the home as well as on the farm. With radio, the company will be able to speed up the restoration of service after storms and other emergencies. Employees in the field will be in constant touch with headquarters and can be dispatched from one place to another with minimum loss of time.

Trucks, Cars Being Equipped
Thirty-two of the company's trucks and cars are now being equipped for communication. The license permits a limit of sixty such units.

Property has been purchased for the stationary transmitters and equipment has been ordered for the stations authorized. The New

Allied Officials Concerned

Agreement

"WAIT AND SEE" IS POLICY ADOPTED

By RICHARD S. WEIL
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 13.—Allied officials were admittedly concerned today by Russia's apparent failure fully to live up to its agreement ending the Berlin blockade.

But, tentatively, they adopted a "wait and see" attitude to determine how far Soviet obstruction of west Berlin's relations with the allied zones of Germany will go.

Source of most of the concern was Soviet insistence that all German groups westbound from Berlin, with the exception of personal luggage, must be licensed for export by Russian-controlled bodies.

Second Friction Cause
A second cause of friction is the Soviet demand that all Berlin-

You can borrow his car or his money, and willingly get them too, if you need a lift as a neighbor, this fellow will see you through. He lends a hand where it's needed with everything that he's got, but don't step onto his garden or the neighbor will promptly get hot. The onions may only be tiny, the radishes just may be seen, and the lettuce crop you will have to seek, for the tips are just barely green, but he prizes that spot very highly, and so friend you'd best stay away, he's a fighting lad when his garden is touched and it's 76 today.

Rev. James N. Rainey, pastor of the Central Christian church, this city was named president of District 2 of the Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society during sessions of the organization which took place on Tuesday in First Christian church on the Public Square.

A second New Castle pastor, Rev. Arthur Wenger, associate at the host church was honored by being elected vice president of the organization. Mrs. W. J. Wilcox of Beaver Falls was re-named secretary-treasurer of the society.

Highlights of the conference were the inspiring missionary addresses given by C. Manly Morton, missionary for the past 33 years to the land of Puerto Rico. Rev. Morton gave the audience an insight into the work being carried on in Puerto Rico by the various churches. He told of the excellent inter-church cooperation on the island pointing out the union seminary and the union press.

During the evening banquet which was primarily youth sponsored, Rev. N. Quentin Grey, of Butler served as chairman. A skit on the various summer church conferences was given by the young people of Sharon East Side church. Work of Bethany College in West Virginia was broached by a representative from the school, Dr. Osborne Booth.

Other addresses during the day long sessions included ones from Rev. Arthur Wenger of this city; Rev. Frank Buechley of Beaver Falls; Alice M. Drake, State Secretary of Christian Education; Mrs. Anna G. Thorpe, matron Cleveland Children's Home; Rev. Franklin Payne, acting state secretary and Mrs. Verle M. Ross, state secretary of Women's Missionary Society.

Reports of the various representative churches showed that much progress has been made during the past fiscal year and that further advancement is planned in the future months.

POLAND, O., May 12.—(INS)—Mahoning county commissioners had assurance from the Ohio highway department that a traffic signal light will be installed at the intersection of routes 224 and 164 in Poland.

The intersection, known as McKay's Corners, has been the scene of many traffic fatalities. But the highway department promised the installation as soon as a crew is available, possibly within two weeks.

play a major part in bringing about the vitally needed improvements at the hospital.

"We plan to give them the fullest opportunity and with the cooperation of management and the labor unions this division can be a key factor in reaching our objective."

A new method of solicitation, never used in New Castle, will be employed to enlist the support of employees. The plan is based on 30 minutes time being given by management in which to hold a meeting of employees. Volunteer committees will appear before these groups, present the facts on New Castle hospital and conduct the solicitation. Where large numbers are employed several such meetings will be necessary.

Plan Gets Approval

The plan has won the approval of representatives of industry who attended last night's meeting and labor leaders. One key labor leader has pointed out that unions have been instrumental in obtaining hospitalization plans for the working people and that now it is vital to these working people to see that adequate hospital facilities are provided to make these hospitalization plans effective.

The invocation at last night's meeting was pronounced by the Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter. An actual demonstration of an employee solicitation meeting was conducted and a discussion period held. Those at the head table included Judge Lamoree, J. Preston Flaherty, general chairman of the campaign; William A. Francis, vice chairman of the employees division; Rev. Jones, who is also a vice chairman of the division, and Fr. McCarter.

Thirty-Four Are Overcome By Gas Fumes In Tunnel

NEW YORK, May 13—(INS)—Thirty-four persons, including 14 police and firemen, were overcome by gas today when ammonia tanks exploded on a truck in the Holland Tunnel, which links New York City and Jersey City under the Hudson river.

Twenty persons, most of them motorists, were treated at the scene and sent home. Eight tunnel police and firemen were sent to Jersey City Medical Center, and six others to New York hospitals.

When the explosion occurred shortly after 9 a.m. EDT, the entire sub-river length of the 9,250-foot tunnel became a vast gas chamber and the gas was spread by the powerful ventilating blowers in the tunnel. The truck burst into flames.

The explosion occurred near the Jersey City entrance, and the gas spread so swiftly that five persons were overcome near the New York end of the tunnel.

Blockade Lifting HAS DEVELOPED SOME NEW ISSUES

bound west zone trains shift to Soviet locomotives and crews at the zonal borders.

Another issue in dispute is the 16-train limit imposed by the Russians on rail traffic to Berlin from the western occupation zones.

However, a quick showdown loomed on this point with the western powers reportedly preparing a demand that the Russians restore the pre-blockade total of 21 train freight and five passenger.

Brig. Gen. Frank Howley, U. S. commandant in Berlin, described the former as a potential threat to the economic recovery of Berlin.

He pointed out that the Russians could use the licensing provision, choke off the city's trade with western Germany, putting its west sector industry out of business.

Protest May Develop

G. T. Cantrell, U. S. military government transportation chief, said that if the Soviets make a "serious attempt" to interfere with traffic out of Berlin a top level protest would be made. He added that the issue might be presented to the council of foreign ministers meeting in Paris May 23.

But Cantrell noted: "It's too early now to tell how far the Soviets will go."

The question of Berlin's exports and Soviet locomotives aside, the end of the blockade brought unaccustomed harmony and a continuous flow of travel to the former German capital.

A total of 16 food and coal trains were due to arrive from the west this morning, in addition to two U. S. military trains, a British military train, and a civilian German train.

Some 70-odd trucks, loaded with food, textiles and consumer goods for the ration-restricted city arrived safely from the west during the first day of open travel.

SWEEPING LABOR LOSSES IN GREAT BRITAIN VOTING

In parliamentary by-elections as evidence of their public support. Conservatives pointed out that, although local issues decided many of the contests, Labor lost in a number of places where its national program was at stake.

Holborn, the most important of Britain's insurance centers, threw out its Labor council by giving Conservatives an additional 22 seats. The vote was interpreted as a protest against the Labor government's plan to nationalize insurance.

Around London, the swing away from Labor was sensational.

COMING TEST AT PARIS

A battle in the cold war is over. Britain, France and the United States, by virtue of the airlift and the counter-blockade of eastern Germany, have repelled a Soviet attack on an exposed position. But the issue that brought on this clash has not been decided.

That issue is the future of Germany. It was because the four great powers could not agree on the question that the cold war began. The western nations have waged that war successfully enough so that the Russians now want to resume the discussions. And the diplomatic struggle will begin again on May 23 at Paris when the Council of Foreign Ministers meets again.

Is an agreement on Germany possible? Unless the Russians are ready to make concessions there can be no understanding. They have made it clear that they want no western German state but a unified Germany. The kind of unified Germany they want would be controlled either by the Communists or by a coalition of Communists and fellow travelers. They also want a share in control over the Ruhr.

The United States, Britain and France cannot accept such a deal. A Germany that would be virtually a Russian satellite would be a constant threat to the peace of the world. But a flat rejection might drive the Germans into the arms of the Russians. Germany and Russia have common interests that have brought them together in the past and could do it again.

General Clay has laid a good foundation for whatever may come. But Paris will be a real test of strength and skill.

CLAY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Gen. Lucius D. Clay retires as military governor of Germany after having held for three years one of the most important military posts in the world, a post in which he had ample opportunity to display his great talents as an administrative genius.

As military governor of Germany he was, in fact, American commander-in-chief in the cold war. There have been times when bad judgment on his part might have precipitated war. He succeeded in a tough assignment.

General Clay has had 31 years of military service. A captain at the beginning of World War II, he rose rapidly through meritorious service to become a five-star general.

When peace comes, it will be discovered that considerable of the ground work was done by General Clay, in his dealings with Russia and the other nations. Achievements of the U. S. Air Force during the Berlin blockade can be credited to him to a considerable extent.

General Clay has earned retirement, and leaves the Army with the gratitude of the American people, who will remain deeply obligated for an important service during a critical period.

INTERNATIONAL BEDLAM

One day this week no less than three nations were so solicitous about the type of fare Ivan has been enjoying that approximately 120 transmitters were devoted to him. The lineup was something like this:

The U. S. State Department's "Voice of America" joined forces with the full overseas facilities of the British Broadcasting Company to send a true account of the negotiations over Berlin through to the Russians. Total, 61 transmitters.

On the other side of the curtain, the Kremlin is just as adamant that the news, as seen through British and American eyes, shall not get through. It has marshalled an impressive amount of equipment and personnel in an attempt to jam the western broadcasts round the clock. Total, 60 transmitters.

It is difficult at this stage to predict who will win out, although it would seem that some of the western Russian language broadcasts were bound to get through. And if Russians who own sets do any thinking for themselves, they may feel that they have suddenly become tremendously important. Otherwise why would they be the subjects of a multi-million dollar international jam session?

ATOM OUTRUNS LOVE

The 1763 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica devoted five pages to a discussion of the subject "Love". That seems none too many for this all-embracing. The latest edition offers nothing whatever under that subject.

The 1763 edition gave just four sentences to the subject "Atom". Perhaps that just about covered what was known about the subject then. Many persons wish that was all that was known about the subject today. But the latest Britannica devotes nine pages to "Atom".

A world where there was less knowledge of the atom and more knowledge of love cannot have been so bad at that.

Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, late president of China, has sounded a rallying cry. But no one seems to be listening.

Everything has its good points. For example, if it weren't for the wife who plays bridge every afternoon what would become of the delicatessen business?

Those dealing with Russia on the Berlin blockade matter are warned to look out for the old double-cross. The Russians invented that, too.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The Berlin blockade has ended. A new chapter in history has been written. World spokesmen are talking of an end to East-West tension and restoration of true peace.

British Foreign Secretary Bevin even has predicted that the time has come again when the people of Soviet satellite states may look upon Britons and Americans as "comrades."

But in all probabilities this somewhat glowing future is a far-off secondary in the minds of most Berliners. For to those in the western sectors the blockade suspension means but one thing—food. Perhaps more of it than they have known since Adolf Hitler's loot from the conquered countries of Europe ran out and rationing began in Nazi Germany for the first time.

When he first inaugurated the airlift last June, Gen. Lucius D. Clay never made any secret of the fact that the best he could hope to do was to maintain the standard of living for the German people provided for in the original occupational statutes.

Hopes Exceeded
The energy he put into the operation and the back-breaking work contributed by American and British airmen may have exceeded this minimum in certain cases—as exemplified by the pilot who took a bale of chocolate bars with him on each trip for Berlin's children. But for the main part, any surplus was stored away against the contingency that the blockade might never have been lifted.

Berlin rations, like those in the rest of Germany, have hovered since the end of the war around 1,700 calories a day. This is a little more than half of the 3,000 average in the United States and the 4,000 consumed by American soldiers in Germany.

Many American airmen and soldiers say freely that this sharp and recognized disparity has contributed largely to their enthusiasm in helping people who not so very long ago were deadly enemies and who now live sometimes ten to a room in bombed-out buildings that often have tar-paper roofs and rooms with one wall.

Official visitors to Europe since the end of the war have been amazed while in Germany in the undamaged mansions of one-time Nazi big-shots, fed the best of army food in copious quantities and as a result sometimes have come back with a foggy picture of the true situation.

Have Experimented
Correspondents with ironclad insides have experimented with the rations available to Germans in restaurants, where there is no ingenious "hausfrau" able to make a turnip taste like a delicacy and the picture has been something else again.

Meat is so scarce that the best anyone can hope for is some sort of a sausage mixture in which sawdust seems to predominate.

Butter still is virtually unknown. In its place, each German is able to acquire once a day a square of cheese precisely the dimensions of an American sugar cube.

Potatoes are handed out by the spoonful and because of the war-torn condition of the land, they are often of a quality that is hardly fit for consumption.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Entirely too many people die from heart trouble.

Every time I go to my syndicate office in New York I hear: "You knew Soandso, didn't you? Well, he dropped dead a couple of days ago. Too bad. Only fifty."

Imagine, more than half a million deaths in one year from what the statistics call "diseases of the heart."

Included in that are those caused by high blood pressure, nervous disorders, brain hemorrhages and the like.

A large percentage of these deaths could have been prevented, because many of them are caused by emotional disturbances of one kind or another.

If you don't want to get heart disease or become a nervous wreck, prevent it.

To be very trite, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

The doctors tell you, "Don't worry. Take it easy."

But they don't tell you how not to worry yet make a living, and how to work yet take it easy all at the same time.

I'll tell you.

It's as simple as A B C.

And I won't charge you a penny for my prescription.

BE YOURSELF! That's all there is to it.

You know what happens to a motor if you keep on abusing it.

If you have a Chevrolet, don't try to make a Cadillac out of it.

Both are good cars. But one has much more power than the other.

So, first find out the capacity of your own motor.

Discover your manpower, your abilities, your talents.

Develop them to your fullest extent but don't overstrain them.

Work hard—but only as hard as your mind and body permit.

Don't wreck yourself trying to be another Morgan, a Ford, a Rockefeller.

Remember, you are Jones.

Be the best possible Jones, not a poor imitation of someone else.

After you have discovered your real self, learn to live with that self and like it.

Then you have the beginning of a happy life.

Money alone or fame has never yet made anyone happy. But the sizzle for money and fame has put millions of dollars into the pockets of doctors, druggists and undertakers.

BE YOURSELF, and you will travel down the path of life without strain and friction, enjoying the beautiful scenery on the way.

And you will reach the end of a long and pleasant journey for your well-earned eternal rest.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

DON'T PUNISH CHILD FOR SCHOOL ERRORS

More and more the modern school is emphasizing likableness, ethical character and citizenship in the child. Of her second grade son, a mother writes:

"We are parents desiring help on six principles that our boy has on his grade card that he is graded for citizenship. He received F on them. I am enclosing them and wish you could help us. He doesn't seem to be for the main part, any surplus was stored away against the contingency that the blockade might never have been lifted."

"We have talked and talked, also spanked, taking away his pleasures, but nothing seems to help. He has a sister 3½ and brother 5 months. We try to give him as much attention as we can. He has been checked by our doctor. Here are the six principles: 1. Assumes responsibility for tasks and completes them. 2. Respects proper authority. 3. Respects the rights and property of others. 4. Practices courtesy in speech and action. 5. Practices good work habits. 6. Obeys the school safety rules."

Back of Teacher
I answered about as follows: After you have assured the teacher and the boy that you are back of him, you will not scold or punish him when he brings his papers home not completed or showing he was not paying attention.

Soviet Objectives Anyone's Guess

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Apart from the fact, and it is a sizable fact, of the actual lifting of the blockade of Berlin, the objectives of Soviet Russia in Germany are anyone's guess. That goes for the United States delegation to the meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers in Paris.

Members of the delegation have been doing a great deal of speculating, as have others with even less knowledge. For example, it is a fairly good guess that the Russians will move for the unification of all of Germany and, as a corollary to this, the withdrawal of all occupation troops — U.S., French, British and Russian.

But whether this is actually the goal not even Secretary of State Dean Acheson, who will head the delegation, can be sure. Therefore, the U.S. group will go to Paris prepared for anything.

Two Points Defined
While flexibility will be the watchword, there are at least two sticking points fairly well defined in advance. They are both related to the expectation that the Russians will plump for a united Germany.

The U.S. delegation naturally will not oppose unification. To do that would be to invite the Russians to exploit a revived German nationalism. But the U.S. will insist at Paris that any union between East Germany and West Germany must be within the framework of the new German constitution.

Went Long Way
When the foreign ministers were in Washington recently for the signing of the North Atlantic Pact, Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France went a long way in agreeing to German revival under the Bonn constitution. But, as responsible U.S. officials see it, there are limits beyond which Western Europe will not go and should not be asked to go with respect to Germany.

The U.S. delegation to Paris will be exceptionally strong. In his four months as secretary of state, Acheson has demonstrated once again his lawyerlike skill and the breadth of his knowledge and experience. But he is also demonstrating a tact and patience that were not always in evidence in the past.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(By International News Service)

Life continues interesting. An anthropologist discovers we are all lopsided, an amateur inventor has turned out an oval wheel and we now have 61 transmitters beaming Russian programs which cannot be heard in Russia.

And it is proposed that we spend $6,000,000 more on Russian programs which cannot be heard in Russia either.

This proposal was made by Sen. McMahon. . . . Not to be confused with the man who invented the oval wheel.

Then George Allen wants to build a $514,000 antenna to carry the programs which are not in the top thousand in any Moscow poll.

And the Russians have 150 transmitters busy turning the Voice of America into squeals, grunts, moans, bleeps and whistles. . . . indicating that they too know how to squander a ruble.

Eventually we may have 200 transmitters feeding programs into a Russian wavetraps of 600 scramblers.

That's why it's so difficult to understand why it took an anthropologist until now to realize that mankind is built lopsided.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

When he was writing his brilliant essays about money, banking, and world affairs in 1931, John Maynard Keynes, the great British economist, observed . . . "A 'sound' banker, alas! is not one who foresees danger and avoids it, but one who, when he is ruined, is ruined in a conventional and orthodox way along with his fellows, so that no one can really blame him."

Keynes, in 1931, was so out of patience with the handling of the world's economic affairs, that he exclaimed in the preface of his book, "Essays in Persuasion." "I still hope and believe that the day is not far off when the Economic Problem will take the back seat where it belongs, and that the arena of the heart and head will be occupied, or re-occupied, by our real problems—the problems of life and human relations, of creation and behavior and religion. And it happens that there is a subtle reason drawn from economic analysis why, in this case, faith may work. For if we consistently act on the optimistic hypothesis, this hypothesis will tend to be realized, whilst by acting on the pessimistic hypothesis we can keep ourselves forever in the pit of want."

Keynes was right about so many things and was so far-seeing in his prophecies that it seems sensible to take a cue from the foregoing statement . . . Long before it happened, he foresaw what was coming in the thirties, and he bade his countrymen to keep their faith, whatever came.

Though the old order might be shaken to its foundations, he reminded his readers that the resources of nature and men's devices would be just as fertile and productive as they had been. Because we have magnet trouble, "we need not assume that we shall soon be back in a rumbling wagon and that motoring is over." . . . And so at this time let us have more faith in ourselves, our genius, our resources, and nature.

Landlady Also Shot And Wounded
By Man Who Said He
'Blew His Top'

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—(INS)—A 24-year-old youth who "blew his top" was held today on charges of fatally shooting his estranged wife and wounding her landlady.

Police identified the man as Walter Gala, unemployed. His wife, Ruth, died instantly with bullets in her head, her hand and her shoulder.

The landlady, Mrs. Margaret Moss, 66, was reported in fair condition.

Gala told police he went to visit his wife yesterday to find out why she kept dates with him but still told her family and friends that she "hated" him.

Gala said that after talking to his wife in her room, they went downstairs where the landlady "kept interrupting" their conversation.

Detectives quoted him as saying: "I pulled out the revolver and fired two shots at Mrs. Moss. I looked around and saw Ruth swaying as if she was going to faint. I thing I fired three shots at her. I just blew my top."

Gala surrendered voluntarily to police a short time after the shootings.

BOILS

A boil is a painful proposition. It hurts and burns and aches. A carbuncle is a get together meeting of several boils.

A boil is caused by a special microbe getting through the skin and causing trouble.

When Grand Dad was a boy a boil was supposed to rid the body of impurities. People poulticed them and made them as large as possible.

A boil does not serve any useful purpose. The doctors know how to prevent them and cure them.

Medical care should be had at the first sign of a boil. Much pain and inconvenience may be avoided.

negotiations leading up to the lifting of the blockade. One of the chief advisers will be Charles E. Bohlen, counselor of the State department, who has a firsthand knowledge of all the ins and outs of German-Russian policy. Beginning in late August or September, Bohlen will serve in Paris as U.S. minister under the newly appointed ambassador, David Bruce.

If the President in the near future names John J. McCloy, now head of the World Bank, to be civilian administrator to succeed Clay, the hope is that he also will be a participant in the conference. This would give him an understanding of the problem that he could not get otherwise.

The U.S. delegation will need a lot of steadiness and poise, while it is in Paris the likelihood is that the Senate will be debating the Atlantic Pact and some of that debate is certain to give comfort to our enemies and cause our friends a great deal of embarrassment.

For this, the Soviets are certain to try and take a great deal of credit and their propaganda mill already has begun to grind out material along this line. Against this, there is the hope on the western allied side that in the long run a peace that can be trusted may eventually arise from a Russian political move that boomeranged like none other in history.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 13.—During the war, because many of our best American workers were called into active duty, the least efficient workers among us were able to find and hold jobs. Many companies suffered actual losses running as high as 50 per cent, on the "output per man" "our" during the years between 1940 and 1944. The first ranks of the present unemployed are largely made up of those individuals.

Roger W. Babson

The second group of unemployed begin to reflect the leveling off of production schedules; supply has now caught up with demand in many businesses. Also, high prices and the election results in November have retarded purchasing. Losses caused by the storms of the winter along with shipment difficulties have also resulted in more unemployment. We see this for instance in textiles, rubber products, radios and phonographs, motor vehicles, shoes, hardware and furniture. I expect to see unemployment increase several millions more as we move into 1950.

Labor-Management Relationship

This, therefore, is a vital time both employees and employers to take inventory of their relationship to each other. As business becomes more difficult and competition more challenging it is very important that all friction be avoided. How can an employee best keep his job? Where should he look for another job should he fail to keep his present one? How can the employer meet the challenge of dropping prices and heighten the quality and the parcel of his product? These questions can be answered only by increased employee-employer cooperation.

Suppose a union contract says that a company may take a month to decide about keeping a new employee. After the end of that trial period a drop comes in that man's efficiency. Repeat this on a large scale and business is injured. The men who demand the union contract must keep only the letter, but also the spirit of the contract. It is such integrity and moral honesty which inspires a company to keep every employee it possibly can.

Ideal Ways To Improve Employee Efficiency

Reports of layoffs and curtailments in some industries already have resulted in improved work in other industries. A fear of the future, however, forms an unhealthy incentive for the worker, in the sense that worry and anxiety tear down morale. Some of the ideal ways which have been found to improve efficiency are mentioned below:

- (1) Better equipment and tools.
- (2) Worker training programs (3) company-paid accident and sickness benefits.
- (4) Careful selection of new employees. Wise employers, with an eye for reliability will be extra careful during 1949 in hiring new workers.
- (5) Adoption of incentive systems, bonuses, etc.
- (6) Showing employees how their future is directly connected with the company's success.

Business Opportunities for the Unemployed

Real Americans have too much pride to live very long on the money earned and paid in taxes by their hard working neighbors. The conscientious unemployed will be looking for new businesses. There are too many people in law and other over-crowded professions, but more nurses are needed, more dentists and more veterinarians. With a greatly increased U. S. birthrate, plus the fact that Americans are living longer, businesses which cater to the very young and the elderly should grow. Anything to do with daycares, kindergartens, baby-sitting should be profitable! The older population is very susceptible to travel agencies, beauty parlors, adult education courses. Good salesmen, accountants, bookkeepers and typists continue in demand. And, of course, we all know the need for good teachers.

I have mentioned here possibilities for jobs in fields which are uncrowded. Almost all of them, you may notice, from the veterinarian field to the teaching offers the worker a chance not only to serve himself, but to greatly serve others. In a survey made many years ago our people were asked "What, in your life, has given you the greatest happiness?" By far the majority of answers came back "My work". Would most Americans give the same answer today?

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

During World War II, they told this story to illustrate the Germans' worship of precision. A Nazi pilot was flying about 500 feet above the ground on a cloudless day. The pilot's companion noticed a hill directly ahead, with a train puffing toward its summit, but the pilot never deviated one inch from his course.

He barely cleared the hill itself, then clipped the top of the train, went into a spin and wound up in a mess of machinery and fuselage in a nearby potato patch. "Why didn't you seek more altitude?" protested the passenger. "That verdamte train," explained the pilot, "had no right to be there. It was seven minutes late."

The man from the Consolidated Edison company rang Mrs. Harold Ross' doorbell and said politely, "I understand there's something in the apartment that won't work." "Yes, indeed. Come right in," urged Mrs. Ross. "You'll find him asleep in the living room."

Volant Lions Have Excellent Program

Members of the Volant Lions' club enjoyed a program of movies which depicted the beauties and ways of life in our America, and the customs and manner of living in far off India. The one film was sent from the government, and the other was shown by "Al" Davelli, of the Rick Motor Company. Two new members were initiated and welcomed into the club. They were H. S. Moore and K. L. McCommon.

Plans which had been made at a directors' meeting were made known at the Tuesday night meeting in the Volant Methodist church. They included arrangements for Ladies' Night to be held May 24, which will be a twelve supper with the men serving and making coffee. Plans were also announced for the purchase of a large American flag for the club room, for the placing of another Lions' marker to be placed at Leesburg, and the purchase of a uniform for a member of the local ball team which will bear the Lion insignia.

The nominating committee has also been chosen to select possible candidates for the June election, with officers expected to take their places by July 1.

At the last meeting, the club members were most enthusiastic in their support of the suggestion of support to be given Lion A. R. Hillard, of Erie, as a future 14-F District Governor.

District Youths Pass Navy Test

Naval electronics selection tests are being given to interested high school boys this month throughout the area covered by the local Navy recruiting office.

Chief S. E. Bond of the Naval office here today announced the names of six boys in the immediate area who have passed the highly technical, difficult test. Wayne Emery Bruce Brown and Ronald Davison of Mt. Jackson High constitute half of the group. Robert Van Metter of Union is also eligible to enroll for 42 weeks of specialized training as a result of having passed the examination.

At Harlansburg, Russell Stroughton and Alvin McMurray attained the qualifying average. McMurray is the first junior at Harlansburg to ever pass the examination and is one of the few juniors in the five-county recruiting area to pass in recent years.

Bond also announced that quotas for high school seniors have been abandoned for the rest of the month. However, the usual enlistment limitation will be in effect again on June 1.

DESIGNERS CREATE TALL GIRL FASHIONS

There is a growing interest in dresses sized for the tall girl or woman. One large department store recently opened a "Tall Timers Shop" and there are some dress manufacturers and designers who specialize in tall fashions.

Several years ago a government survey found the average height to be 5 feet 4 inches. The same survey found 22 per cent of the women were taller than 5 feet 4 inches. One estimate has it that nearly 13 million women can be classified as tall.

A customer's first thought in shopping is size. Unless a garment fits well, it is useless to consider material, color, or style. The dark rich colors and current styles modified so that lines detract from height seem to be the most successful for tall girls. Other design points of interest to the tall girl are dressmaker suits, two-toned suits, yoke effects, double pockets, large irregular shaped collars, and cuffed sleeves.

One designer for tall girls' fashions avoids extreme or fussy lines and never uses bead or braid trims. Soft colors are preferred. Good lines and good fabrics are important, but good fit is to be considered first. Large accessories, against an uncluttered background of dress or suit, are the choice of the tall girl, who also looks well in slim skirts and jackets either short or long. Fitted or loose coats are good style for tall girls.

PLANT VEGETABLE GARDEN FOR EATING, CANNING

A good garden requires a good plan. Use the land to the best advantage and the nutritional needs of the family will be properly supplied. Select the proper kinds of vegetables and make successive plantings to have a continuous supply of fresh vegetables.

Plant enough leafy green and yellow vegetables to provide one or more servings daily for the family, advises the extension workers. Plan for enough potatoes and other vegetables to serve them twice daily. A garden should supply sufficient amounts of food for canning and freezing.

A few suggestions are offered: the number of feet necessary to yield one bushel: Pole snap beans 50 feet; bush snap beans, 100 feet; lima beans, 150 feet; beets 50 feet; carrots, 50 feet; spinach, 50 feet; other greens, 30 to 50 feet; tomatoes, 50 feet. Good yields will be higher than these average figures. The vegetables suited to home canning are listed, and shows approximate amounts of fresh vegetables for given number of quarts when canned: Lima beans in pods—1 bushel (32 pounds) yields 6 to 8 quarts, 4 to 5 pounds yields 1 quart; snap beans 1 bushel (30 pounds) yields 15 to 20 quarts, 1½ to 2 pounds yield 1 quart; beets, without tops—1 bushel (52 pounds) yields 17 to 20 quarts, 2½ to 3 pounds yield 1 quart; carrots, without tops 1 bushel (30 pounds) yields 16 to 20 quarts, 2½ to 3 pounds yield 1 quart; sweet corn in husks—1 bushel (35 pounds) yields 8 to 9 quarts, 6 to 16 ears yield 1 quart; 1 bushel greens—(18 pounds) yields 6 to 9 quarts, 2 to 3 pounds, yield 1 quart; green peas in pods—1 bushel (30 pounds) yields 12 to 15 pints, 2 to 2½ pounds yield 1 pint; squash—1 bushel (40 pounds) yields 16 to 20 quarts, 2 to 2½ pounds yield 1 quart; tomatoes 1 bushel (53 pounds) yield 15 to 20 quarts, 2½ to 3 pounds yield 1 quart.

Printed information on food preservation—both canning and freezing recommendations may be secured from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Bldg., New Castle, Pa.

Murray And CIO Leaders Confer In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, May 13—(INS)—President Philip Murray and top CIO union leaders met in Pittsburgh yesterday to shape a program for a scheduled executive board meeting in Washington next week.

The agenda is believed to include the question of wages, the nation's economy and future political action.

Among those attending the conference were Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, whose union has struck at the Ford Motor Co.

As he left to fly back to Detroit last night, Reuther said he will have a conference with Ford officials today.

Other CIO officials attending the meeting were Emil Rieve, president of the Textile Workers; Frank Rosenblum, secretary-treasurer, Amalgamated Clothing Workers; John Green, president of the Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, and Arthur Goldberg, general council for the CIO.

Modern Methods Will Be Discussed

"Modern Methods in Meat Merchandising" will be discussed here in a two day demonstration to be held May 19-20.

L. J. Klug of the National Live Stock and Meat Board will conduct the meetings for the benefit of meat retailers and consumers. The meetings will be held in The Castleton ball room.

There will be demonstrations of modern meat cutting methods, "muscle boning," and a presentation of facts upon the cutting and retailing meat.

It is possible that some schools will be visited by Mr. Klug and demonstrations put on there.

New Castle is one of 59 cities throughout the country which have been selected for these demonstrations under the auspices of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Will Battle To Cut Spending By Government

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(INS)—Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., declared that he and other economy advocates will "use every and any parliamentary device possible" in a fight to cut government spending.

Ferguson made the statement as the Senate prepared to vote on the Ferguson-Bridges amendment to slash five percent from the treasury-post office appropriation bill of more than three billion dollars.

Rejection of the amendment is forecast because it requires a two-thirds vote.

But Ferguson said that if he loses his round, he will propose that the Senate limit the treasury and post office departments to a 95 percent expenditure of the money eventually given them.

Senate Minority Leader Wherry (R) Neb., said that in event all other devices fail, he expects a motion will be made to send the bill back to committee for the slash. This procedure was used on the labor department-federal security appropriation measure.

Demands for cuts in federal spending were spurred by a commerce department report that personal income declined for the third consecutive month at an annual rate of two billion dollars during March.

Ferguson said that his group is serious about trying to cut down on government spending to avert a tax increase or prevent deficit spending.

He added:

"Instead of having too many Byrds in Congress as the President is quoted as saying, we haven't enough."

Toonerville Folks:— BY FONTAINE FOX

"TOMBOY" TAYLOR ALWAYS HAS POCKET MONEY

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 13.—A pint-sized guy named Eddie Jones pulls more miracles out of his pockets than any character in the film dodge.

Jones is one of those Hollywood characters technically known as a property man.

Directors have habits of turning toward prop men on the spur of an instant and ordering up such interesting items as three-eyed turtles or a Hindustani prayer book simply for the sake of a picture.

"Things like those are a cinch," declared the jovial Mr. Jones. "It's the simple things that throw you."

Eddie has been banging around movie sound stages for exactly one quarter of a century. And he has been confronted by thousands of "simple things," which does not, in this case, refer to brainless blonde dancing dummies that often clutter up sets.

Eddie currently is knocking down his couple of hundred bucks per payday for a thing called "Pinky" out at Col. Darryl Zanuck's 20th Century-Fox Film factory.

"This one," said Eddie, "has been a toughie. We are on location and Mr. Elia Kazan, the director, turns to me and says, 'Eddie, we need some corn bread.' I said, 'Sure, Mr. Kazan,' not having any idea where I could find corn bread in five minutes.

"I hopped into a car, hurried to the nearest grocery store and bought corn meal, sorghum and glue.

"Back at location, while they held up production on the million dollar picture, I poured corn meal over a pan of sorghum with glue. It was the nicest-looking corn bread you ever saw—even if Jeanne Crain would have to use a pick axe to cut it."

Finds Scottie Dog

The next day Kazan wanted a Scottie puppy for a scene. Eddie started ringing doorbells. Twenty minutes later he was back with the Scottie plus the pup's owner whom Eddie had to bail out of school.

Two days later Kazan ordered a canary in a cage to sing to Ethel Barrymore. Eddie was allowed 15 minutes to find a bird. Four blocks later, after peeking into front room windows, he spotted one.

"But the woman didn't understand English," he related. "Only Spanish. I finally found a boy who acted as my interpreter. I paid the woman five bucks for use of the bird. She understood that kind of lingo. Every morning after that she appeared on the set with the canary, hoping we'd rent the little feathered friend again."

Plenty Of Props

Eddie has gathered more than 7,000 props for "Pinky." Only one time was he stumped. That was when Kazan asked him, in the bat of a gnat's eyelash, to round up a bowl of peas for Ethel Waters to shell during an important scene.

"Peas weren't in season," explained Eddie. "So I bought some apples and a paring knife and handed them to Miss Waters. Nothing more was said."

OAKS REVERED

KENT, O., (INS)—Don Fowler, Davey Tree Expert Company researcher, says oaks were revered by the ancients as the targets of thunderbolts hurled by Jupiter, king of the gods, and Thor, the thunder god.

Treasury Secretary Declares Economic Status Is Strong

Declares All Signs Point To High
Income, High Employment
Level In Future

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(INS)—Treasury Secretary Snyder said Thursday that America's economic status is "exceptionally strong" and all signs point to "a high-income, high-employment level" in the future.

Snyder also declared that new industrial developments and such scientific marvels as atomic energy have given the nation a "spring-board for a new era of progress."

At the same time, however, he said that the treasury's rate of public debt reduction since last June 30 has fallen short of his original plan.

He reported that "only 750 million dollars" worth of public debt has been retired in the last 10 months and blamed it on the government's prospective budget deficit for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

These were the highlights of an address by Snyder before an annual convention of the Mutual

Savings Banks Association. He told the financial leaders:

Position Strong

"Today... our position is exceptionally strong and we can look to the future with the confidence of experience in our ability to maintain that strength."

In addition, Snyder cited statistics on the public's income, savings and potential buying power which he said support continued confidence in the future. He added:

"I could cite more statistics. But all point in one direction. 'There are powerful factors in our present situation making for stability and progress on a high-income, high-employment level. And there are evidences other than statistics.'

There are said to be nearly 250 languages in India and some 300 dialects.

TENOR CRISIS
PERUGIA, Italy, (INS)—The University for Foreigners at Perugia is establishing "a special actor-singer course for non-Italians" in an effort to overcome what it calls a "crisis" caused by a worldwide decline in the quantity of singers, particularly tenors.

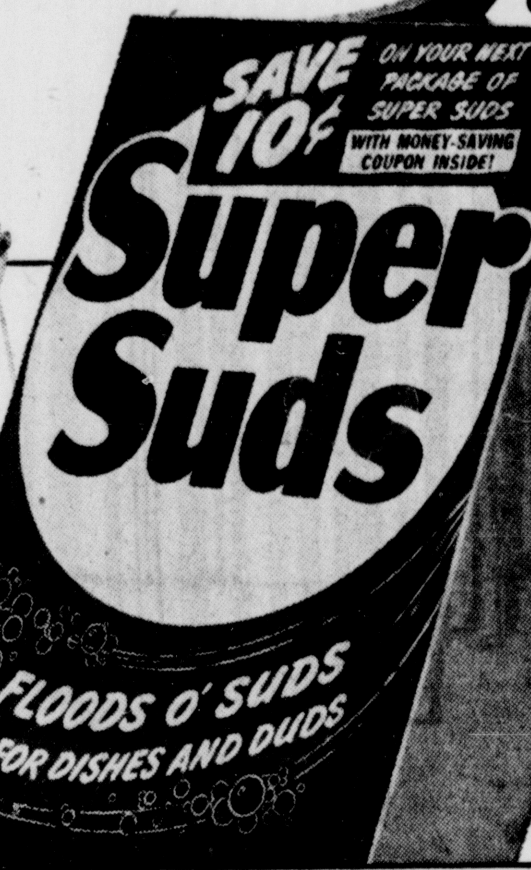

In the Middle Ages the betrothal was an important, if not an essential part, of the marriage transaction.

• There was no decorating problem at all. Our Cool Ray awning is a colorful ceiling... the walls are as wide as our garden. It's wonderfully cool because Cool Ray all-aluminum awnings repel the hot sun and still encourage free circulation of air. It's also protection against rain because it absolutely can't leak. Quaker City Jury System May Become Model For State

Jury Selection System Is Headed By Four Masters With Power To Remove Jurors

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)—A new jury selection system for Philadelphia loomed as a possible model for other counties in the state.

Gov. James H. Duff announced approval of a bill, backed by the Philadelphia Bar Association, establishing a jury selection board headed by four masters with power to sift ineligible from jury rosters. The law, effective January 1, limits service to person who can read and write English, who are physically capable of rendering service and "who are of good character and have never been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude."

Prospective jurors would be chosen by the masters on the basis of interviews or questionnaires but the measure does not rule out private investigation.

Four quarters would make up each court year and jurors would be drawn from jury wheels for each session. Prospects may specify the term in which they wish to serve.

After one term's service, citizens will not be called on again for three years.

Penalties for tampering with jury wheels range up to $500 or six months imprisonment.

DETROIT, May 13.—(INS)—CIO-UAW and Ford Motor Company officials meet for the fifth time today to seek a solution to the Rouge and Lincoln-Mercury strike which has idled more than 150,000 workers across the nation.

Observers saw a distinct possibility of a shift in strategy on both sides with the return of UAW President Walter P. Reuther from a meeting with CIO President Philip Murray and the appearance of new management forces at the conference table.

State Camp Bill Given Approval

States Camp For Underprivileged Children Operation Approved

CAMP PENN LOCATED AT INDIANTOWN GAP

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)—The Commonwealth's plan for a state-sponsored summer camp for underprivileged children rolled into high gear with the approval of a $600,000 operating appropriation by Gov. James H. Duff. The camp, to be known as "Camp Penn," will be located on the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation near Harrisburg and will accommodate 2,500 boys in the 14-16 age range this year.

"With the signing of this bill, Camp Penn becomes a going concern," Duff stated. "Thus the commonwealth's dream of giving the boy who otherwise would not be able to afford it a summer outing in the country is beginning to become a reality."

5,000 Youths In 1950

The appropriation measure earmarks $200,000 for the camp during 1949 and $400,000 for the 1950 outing when 5,000 youths will be accommodated.

"This money will be used not only to transport the boy to and from the camp and to feed him while there," Duff explained, "but also to provide him with all the clothing, including T-shirts, shorts, underwear, shoes and socks and a poncho-type raincoat."

The measure, approved unanimously by the General Assembly, was sponsored by Republican Sens. Fraser P. Donlan, Lackawanna, and Theodore H. Dochla, Allegheny.

Plans Announced

Meanwhile, the summer camp committee announced that detailed plans for selection of the 2,500 boys who will attend the camp from July 14 to 28.

Complete instructions for selecting boys at the local school level have been mailed to all county and district school superintendents, supervising and high school principals and all parochial school principals.

School Age Girls

Present plans call for school-age girls to be selected to attend the camp. The annual summer outing will be managed and supervised jointly by the state health, public instruction and military affairs departments.

Camping activities will be guided by 140 school teacher counselors selected on their records of camping, physical, educational and general teaching experience.

In addition, a staff of 25 physicians, five trained nurses and several dental technicians will be on duty at all times.

County Quotas

County quotas fixed by the camp committee for the 1949 encampment are:

Allegheny, 398; Armstrong, 22; Beaver, 44; Bedford, five; Blair, 38; Butler, 24; Cambria, 59; Cameron, three; Centre, 15; Clarion, 11.

Clearfield, 25; Clinton, 10; Crawford, 20; Elk, 10; Erie, 51; Fayette, 55; Forest, three; Franklin, 19; Fulton, four; Greene, 12; Huntingdon, 11; Indiana, 22; Jefferson, 15; Juniata, five; Lawrence, 26; McKean, 15; Mercer, 28.

Mifflin, 12; Perry, seven; Potter, six; Snyder, six; Somerset, 23; Union, six; Venango, 18; Warren, 12; Washington, 58; Westmoreland, 85.

HONOR MOTHERS AT EVENING GATHERING

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBOENE

Youngster's Ideas About Parents

It's a good thing every now and then for us parents to see ourselves through the youngster's eyes. Unfortunately, there's not likely to be many occasions on which they feel free to speak perfectly frankly. Recently in the Chicago Sun-Times four high school young people gave their off-the-cuff answers to the question, "... what do parents primarily do wrong in rearing their children?"

Here are the answers in a condensed form. Perhaps you won't agree in every instance, but they're points of view to which we should pay attention.

(1) "They don't give us enough freedom. They don't trust their children. Children and parents should have confidence in each other and I'm afraid it's the parents who lack the confidence."

(2) "Parents expect too much of their children. They want us to be something we really aren't. I also object to the fact that too many parents choose their children's friends."

(3) "Instead of guiding us, they boss us. It takes parents too long to realize their children don't remain infants."

(4) "They don't think we take life seriously enough. Of course, we want to have fun but we take life seriously in our own way."

Egg Production Drops In April

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)

Unfavorable temperature fluctuations today were blamed for a drop in Pennsylvania's egg production during April.

The state agriculture department quoted a federal-state survey which showed the average number of layers in the state's farm flocks was 17,169,000 or five per cent below the March average.

April egg production of 312,000,000 was 15,000,000 under

March and 16,000,000 below April 1948, the survey indicated.

Temperatures fluctuated widely during April and were seasonally less favorable for egg production than in any other month since last October, the department pointed out.

Demand for chicks dropped sharply in April after a brisk tour through January, February and March. The relation between feed prices and prices received by farmers for eggs was more favorable this April than the same month last year.

The only part of the human body that cannot "repair" itself is the teeth.

WHO SETS WEDDING DATE?

"I have been engaged for almost a year. My ring is lovely and my fiancé is very attentive; but never since his original proposal when he gave me the ring has the question of marriage arisen. Whose place is it to set the date—the man's or the woman's? How can I gracefully bring up the subject?"

Answer: You are in a spot. Either your fiancé is not in good financial condition or he, for some unknown reason, has little intention of getting married soon. In fact, it looks as if he might be planning one of those long, old-fashioned engagements that take up a girl's youth, thereby making her ineligible for another match. Find out why he is reticent. If it is financial trouble, he owes you an explanation. If he has changed his mind about you, that, too you should know. An engagement is a trial period. If the trial is a failure, 'tis better to break the engagement than to go on unhappily and indefinitely.

You owe it to yourself to find out why and wherefore of his silence. This may be done by such reminders as "Do you like Spring weddings or June weddings?" "Mother has asked me to make my plans well in advance, so that we will not be rushed at the last minute."

That certainly should scare him into action either pro or con. If he is evasive, the rest is up to you. Whether you want to reestablish yourself before it is too late or drift along indefinitely.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Court House

Detention Home Site Not Picked

Welfare Department Thinks
Site Outside The City
Might Be Advisable

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Selecting a site for the new detention home is a problem which is presently confronting the county commissioners.

The welfare department of the state has suggested that a rural site would be an advantage. The commissioners have considered the present site and also the Early property several hundred yards from the court house.

The commissioners are interested in keeping the cost down to as reasonable a level as possible. The idea of the new home is to make it a temporary lodging place for boys and girls brought in. Instead of keeping them there any length of time they would be sent to a state institution. For this reason the commissioners feel that an elaborate home is not necessary, a view with which many taxpayers will undoubtedly agree.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

Charged with robbery, three young men are in the county jail. Sheriff Frank L. Coen has made charges against them in the office of Alderman Jess C. Kennedy.

It is charged the young men took a local woman out for a ride in a taxi about a week ago. She was left some distance from town and later claimed she had been robbed.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 13.—(INS)—Probably most Americans, like myself, never heard the word "paraplegic" before World War II. Then, suddenly, it had all too familiar a ring and with it the connotation of helpless and hopeless invalidism.

But the age of miracles has taken over a relatively small, quiet New York building in East Thirty-eighth street and paraplegics are being taught to walk, to take care of their bodily needs and, in many cases, to return to part time and even full time employment.

Within one year after its establishment, the Institute of Rehabilitation and Physical Medicine, conducted by the New York University-Bellevue Medical Center, has become a haven of hope for men, women and children crippled by automobile and industrial accidents or wasting disease.

Lamp In The Dark

It is a lamp in the dark for the thousands of Americans who are permanently injured every year in civilian accidents. The appalling annual civilian total is higher than the number of Americans injured in almost four years of global fighting in World War II.

More than 800 persons have been treated at the institute since its inauguration. Of this number, 100 have been paraplegic miners, their backs broken, sent to the institute by mine union welfare funds.

Ninety-five of this group were taught to walk again, although the men had been bed-ridden for periods varying from six months to fifteen years. Between seventy and eighty per cent of these men are now gainfully employed once more, either at part or full time jobs.

Two of the pretty young secretaries at the institute were "hopeless" paraplegics, bed-ridden for years, before they came to the haven for treatment. Now both get around on crutches and each is independent and able to earn a living.

ing. Both were injured in auto accidents.

Another full time employee of the institute is a slim young man who lost both hands in a factory accident a few years ago. He was brought to the institute in such blank despair that his family feared he would kill himself at any moment.

Accomplished With Hooks

Today he is almost as accomplished with hooks as other men with hands. He stays on at the institute as an instructor and, once more able to earn a living for his wife and two children, is a happy and well adjusted individual.

With considerable quiet pride, he showed me that he could even take off and put on the artificial arms and the complicated harness that goes with them.

A five-story building crowded with men and women learning to walk on their own once-useless limbs and with others learning to use artificial arms and legs would not ordinarily be regarded as a repository of good cheer and gaiety.

But every face at the institute was animated by cheer and happiness, and by something above and beyond both—by hope.

Hope of a return to self-sufficiency, to useful living, to financial independence!

In no face did hope shine so valiantly as in that of a woman, her forehead damp with perspiration, who slowly put forward first one artificial leg and the other.

She'll Walk Again

"She'll walk again because she's determined to," said Dr. Howard A. Rusk, chairman of the institute and former wartime chief of the Army Air Forces Rehabilitation program.

Dr. Rusk went on to point out that this woman is more handicapped than any legless veteran he had treated. An auto accident left her with but one three inch stump and another short stump from which even the bone is gone.

"Rehabilitation is our primary medical problem in this country," Rusk continued. "What we do here is just a drop in the bucket. But it's a beginning. Our problem is to teach people to live as best they can with what they've got."

"No man or woman should ever be thrown on a human rubbish heap. And that is what happens too often to the disabled. We are here to help the disabled live within the limits of his disability but to the very limit of his capabilities, which can be very considerable, indeed."

Jap Emperor Doffs

Emperor Hirohito Doffs Hat To Last American Sentry To Guard Imperial Bridge

TOKYO, May 13.—(INS)—Emperor Hirohito doffed his hat to an American recruit today.

Recipient of this virtually unprecedented gesture was Pvt. Thomas
Hudgel of Dayton, O.

It was occasioned by the fact that Hudgel was the last American sentry to guard the double-bridge gate of the imperial palace in Tokyo.

Riding in a heavily guarded motorcade, Hirohito passed the main gate's sentry post just as Japanese policemen were relieving
Hudgel and Pvt. Kelvin W.
Dunn of Port Pivie, South Australia.

It was then that the emperor looked directly at recruit Hudgel and bared his head in salutation.
The American soldier just gawked.

The convention will feature memorial services, 40 & 8 activities, drum and bugle corps.

Ex-Paratrooper To Jump From Empire State Building

Would Not Disclose Date Of His Proposed Leap From New York Building

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—(INS)—Robert L. Niles, 22, the stunt man who can't seem to resist jumping off San Francisco bay bridges, claimed today he will try to parachute from New York Empire State building.

The former army paratrooper who must answer to misdemeanor charges in San Francisco municipal court for jumping off the Oakland bay bridge Tuesday would not disclose the date of his proposed Empire State building leap.

Niles was charged with breaking a public ordinance against pedestrians on the bay bridge and also with being a public nuisance—for tying up traffic—in his Tuesday jump.

The youthful stunt man who makes his living as a "dare devil" jumper at carnivals said he has plans for "bigger and better" leaps.

On April 19 he parachuted from the Golden Gate bridge and was taken into custody by San Francisco police but charges against him were dismissed.

Advanced New Truck Will Be Displayed Here

The first public showing in New Castle, of an advanced new kind of motor truck will be held starting May 16 at Bailey Sales & Service, Inc., Butte avenue, as part of a nation-wide introduction of the new White 3000.

The 3000 show starts Monday at 2:30 p. m. The showroom will remain open until 9:00 p. m.

The most dramatic feature of the White 3000 is a unique power-lift cab. A rugged adaptation of the actuating device that operates the landing gear on airliners tilts the cab forward, in less than 30 seconds, at the turn of a key. This feature permits ready accessibility to all mechanical parts and saves in maintenance and inspection time as well as making better workmanship possible because the units to be worked on are at convenient bench-height.

"The White 3000 is the first real post-war conception of a new motor truck design," R. A. Bailey, Jr., president Bailey Sales & Service, Inc., said. "I have just returned from Cleveland where White sales representatives from coast-to-coast were given a preview of the new models. I am convinced that the design sets an entirely new standard of delivery efficiency and maintenance economy."

Highway Deaths Decline In State

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)—The state highway safety bureau reported today traffic fatalities on Pennsylvania highways showed an encouraging decline during the first three months of 1949.

In the first quarter of the year 320 Pennsylvanians were killed in traffic accidents compared with 345 during a similar period in 1948. Nationally deaths for the first quarter of 1949 increased two per cent while the commonwealth showed a decline of seven per cent, the bureau said.

The saving of 25 lives was credited chiefly to urban areas. The death toll included 168 pedestrians, 92 in urban areas and 76 in rural districts.

Atomic Report May Have Helped Reds

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(INS)—Dr. Henry D. Smyth declared Thursday that publication of his famed technical report on atomic energy in 1945 may have given the Russians a "little" help in making atomic bombs.

Smyth, noted physicist recently named as a member of the atomic energy commission, declared that he felt publication of his report was a "correct" decision, however, because it acquainted the American people with the atomic problem.

He testified before the congressional atomic energy committee in connection with his nomination by President Truman to the atomic commission.

North Atlantic Pact Approval Seen By Senator

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(INS)

—Sen. Hickenlooper (R) Iowa, declared today that any Kremlin gesture for harmony now is too late to soften Capitol Hill's determination to ratify the North Atlantic pact.

Hickenlooper declared also that Congress will brush aside quickly such proposals as that of the American Communist party that the United States should seek peace with Russia by scrapping the atomic bomb.

The senator declared that if the dropping of the Berlin blockade is the beginning of a series of friendly gestures toward America, it comes too late to affect ratification of the treaty and at least some degree of armed aid to Europe.

House Of Commons Approves Pact

Only Six Votes, Two Of Them Communist, Were Recorded Against Atlantic Pact

LONDON, May 13.—(INS)—Overwhelming House of Commons Approval of the North Atlantic Pact was regarded in London today as strengthening the hand of the west in the forthcoming Big Four Paris talks.

Only six votes—two of them Communist—were recorded last night against the pact compared with 333 in approval.

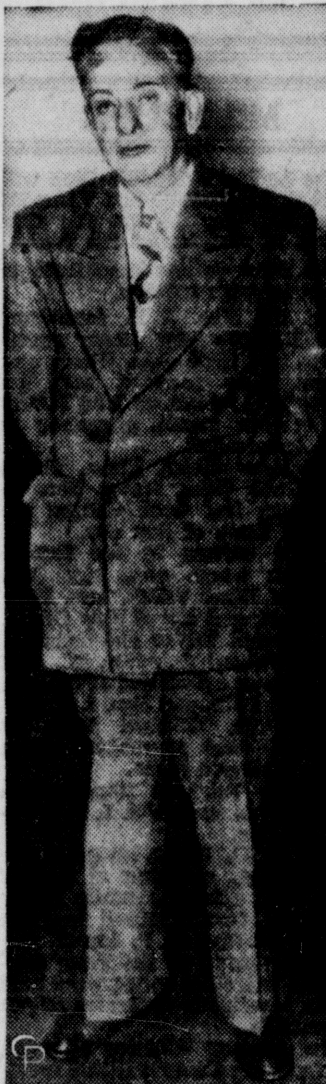

The vote was taken after British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared that the west was driven by Soviet policies into the alliance. Winston Churchill warned that the U.S. and its atomic bombs are the main bulwark of peace.

Two Laborites and two independent labor party members voted against the pact. They denounced it as aggressive and a threat to Russia.

Brussels, May 13.—(INS)—The Belgian senate approved the Atlantic Pact last night by a vote of 127-to-13. The pact had been ratified by the chamber of deputies earlier this month.

The Pacific end of the Panama Canal is about 27 miles farther east than the Atlantic end.

Kiwanis Ladies Hear Of Juvenile Delinquency From State Legislator

A delightful luncheon meeting was held Thursday afternoon at The Castleton, when Ladies of the Kiwanis were hostesses to members of the various service clubs and organizations of this community. There were approximately 65 women present.

Mrs. Floyd Perrine opened by leading the group in singing "America" with Mrs. J. J. Alexander at the piano. Mrs. James A. Gaiser then gave the invocation.

Following a delicious luncheon served at tables prettily appointed with bowls of spring flowers, Mrs. Floyd Perrine of the Ladies of Kiwanis welcomed the ladies and introduced Mrs. Samuel Rashid, president-elect of the Ladies of the Lions, and Mrs. Carl Anderson, president-elect of the Quota-Mrs. Hartman, program chairman of the Ladies of Kiwanis, who in turn in a very charming manner introduced the guest speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Jeanette M. Dye of Sandy Lake.

Mrs. Dye was elected to the Pennsylvania General Assembly in 1941, 1946 and again in 1948. She was the only Republican woman elected to the 49 session and is the first woman ever appointed to the joint state government commission.

Speaks On Juvenile Delinquency

Mrs. Dye spoke to the group on the Juvenile Delinquency problem in Pennsylvania today. She was chairman of a 12-member committee that made a state investigation of the delinquency problems in Pennsylvania. This committee, composed of five senators and seven representatives, was appointed in September of '47. The committee made investigations of state-owned and state-aided institutions and found the situation deplorable. They visited settlement houses, parole boards, industrial schools and boys clubs and while all these organizations do aid the situation to a certain extent, there is a great need for state wide work to remedy the Juvenile Delinquency situation.

Mrs. Dye said that the fatal defect of the training schools and institutions was the massing of the various types of delinquents which in time tends to make criminals. She used White Hill, the institution for men, and Muncy, for women as examples. She told of finding 16-year-old girls with 60-year-old women, of a young boy convicted of car theft in the same section as a man of 35 who should be confined to the penitentiary. She saw the young and old mixed, the petty thief and the serious criminal, the mentally and physically ill with sane and well inmates. She saw young children being made into potential criminals.

Recommendations Made

Following this investigation, the committee recommended to the state legislature that there be a complete reshuffling of the Pennsylvania state institutions. That all juveniles sentenced to an institution first be sent to a reception center where he will be completely diagnosed by eminent doctors, psychiatrists and teachers and from there sent to an institution of the same type and guilty of the same kind of crime. This bill has not been passed as yet but the pattern has been set and the bill will be reintroduced at the coming sessions.

Mrs. Dye also gave some interesting sidelights of the procedure in the state legislative bodies at Harrisburg and she stressed the need of more women in public office today. She pointed out that the opinions of women mingled with the masculine viewpoint would make for a better legislature. At the past session there were three women in the House of Representatives, two Democrats and one Republican, and this is not enough to be effective, she said.

Following a most informative talk by Mrs. Dye, which she gave in an entertaining manner, there was a general discussion period at which time the ladies asked Mrs. Dye several questions.

The business meeting was dispensed with and Mrs. Floyd Perrine then closed the meeting with a few remarks. The Ladies of Kiwanis have adjourned for the summer and will resume meetings in September.

SOUTH KOREAN SHIP MISSING FOUR DAYS

SEOUL, May 13.—(INS)—The South Korean coast guard admitted today that one of its vessels, with 41 men aboard, has been missing since Tuesday.

The Pyongyang radio in Communist-governed North Korea claimed the boat and its complement had deserted to the northern Reds.

Coast guard quarters in Seoul said that if the vessel has gone over to North Korea it must have resulted from a mutiny by the crew since its commanding officer was "loyal and reliable."

According to hat manufacturers, the average American man wears a size seven hat.

The United States produces three times as much steel as Canada but the ratio is expected to change in the near future when ore discovered in Labrador is mined.

Across a 350-mile stretch of wilderness in Labrador there is believed to be a solid trough of iron ore running anywhere from 10 to 60 miles wide.

Rheumatic Fever Clinics Need More Facilities

State Was Urged To Expand Facilities To Care For Convalescents

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—(INS)—The state was urged today to provide expanded facilities for convalescent care of rheumatic fever victims.

The need for more beds was pointed up by Dr. John P. Hubbard, of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School.

Dr. Hubbard told a three-day seminar of the directors of the state's 13 rheumatic heart clinics which ended in Philadelphia yesterday that "there is a great deal of rheumatic fever in Pennsylvania."

"Approximately 10,000 children have been referred to the clinics, and that's a pretty big load," he declared. "We are acutely aware of the fact that there are not enough beds for convalescent care of children suffering from this disease."

"Rheumatic fever kills more children of school age than any other disease, and is second only to accidents as a cause of death for children in Pennsylvania."

He said that during the three-day meeting, the directors "reviewed the whole program of the diagnosis and management and treatment of rheumatic fever in the state."

Cities represented at the conference included Greensburg, New Castle, Harrisburg, Scranton, Sayre, Allentown, Wilkes-Barre, Altoona, Bradford, Lewistown and Pottsville.

The slang word "hoosegow," meaning a jail, comes from the Spanish word juzgado, meaning a trial court.

Bumper Crops In State Looked For

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)—Prospects have greatly improved for bumper crops of many farm products, it was reported today by the state agriculture department.

A survey of farm conditions on May 1 showed that all fruits, winter grains and grasses developed during April, the department said.

Only growth and germination of early spring vegetables were retarded during the month because of cool mornings and frequent rains, according to the department.

No Heavy Damage
Frosts caused only light damage to heavy blooms of fruit in all areas. Cool April weather extended the apple bloom period, causing optimism among apple growers.

Favorable April weather boosted May wheat estimates more than half a million bushels to an estimated crop of 21,114,000 bushels.

Initial rye estimates were listed at 170,000 bushels, the smallest ever recorded in the state, the department said.

Churchill Warns Against Optimism

LONDON, May 13.—(INS)—Winston Churchill warned against over-optimism regarding suspension of the Berlin blockade and reiterated that world safety is ensured only by American possession of the atomic bomb.

Britain's wartime leader addressed the House of Commons after Foreign Secretary Bevin reviewed Soviet post-war policy in asking parliamentary approval of the North Atlantic Pact.

Bevin said that Russian "symptoms of aggressive intentions... which would inevitably have led ultimately to war... now are on the wane."

Game Commission Announces Drive

Announced Campaign To Reduce Slaughter Of Game On State Highways

HARRISBURG, May 13.—(INS)—The State Game commission today announced a campaign designed to reduce the slaughter of game on Pennsylvania highways.

The commission said highway signs warning motorists to "Save Game—Drive Carefully" will be erected throughout the state in cooperation with the highways department.

Executive Director Tom Frye pointed out highways department records showed 100,000 birds and animals were killed by trucks and automobiles last year. Animals killed included 58,000 rabbits, 14,900 skunks, 500 deer, six bear and thousands of other species.

After a study in Australia, it was found that from 1941 to 1945, 136 infants with congenital cataracts were born to mothers who had German measles in the first three months of pregnancy.

Music Club Chorus Gives Fine Program

An embankment of lovely spring flowers set the scene at the First Methodist church, Thursday evening when a capacity crowd heard and enjoyed the annual Spring Concert presented by the Music Club Chorus.

The chorus of over 100 voices presented a program consisting of a variety of secular music. There was a definite professional air about the entire presentation from the talented singers, their very able director, Mrs. William J. Caldwell and the accompanists, Mrs. Richard K. Allen and Edwin Lewis.

Musical Arts Trio

Chamber music is not exactly neglected hereabouts yet local music lovers have reason to congratulate themselves on the acquisition of a fine ensemble in the Musical Arts Trio which made an auspicious debut as soloists with the Music Club Chorus last evening. The organization consisting of Edwin Lewis, pianist, Anthony Casbero, violinist and Tom Wiant, cellist, were distinctly in the vein for superb music-making. They began with the Haydn Trio No. 5 in E Flat Major, a performance distinguished by a fine unity of conception, by playing of an exceptional order and by poetry as well as rhythmic vitality. They later played a group of shorter numbers which included works by Broustet, Debussy and the Rondos by Haydn. While the playing of Mr. Lewis and Mr. Casbero is well established, in Tom Wiant they found an equally capable colleague. Not only was their tone exquisitely molded but there was such beautiful cohesiveness one was aware only of three perfectly balanced instruments.

The program opened with "Come Gentle Spring" by Franz Joseph Haydn, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" by Lowell Mason and a beautiful arrangement of "Come and Sing" from "Die Fledermaus" by Johann Strauss, in which the obligato voices were soprano, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Ruth Weir and Mrs. Dudley Arnold and tenor, Fred Smith and Elmer Kanagy.

The "Trio V. in E Flat Major" by Haydn was then presented by the Musical Arts Trio.

Outstanding Number

The outstanding number of the chorus if one can choose an outstanding number from the excellent program presented, was "The Deacon's Masterpiece" by Perry E. Fletcher. The words of this thirty minute ballad, sometimes called "The Wonderful One-Hoss Shay", were written by our early American poet, Oliver Wendell Holmes. The chorus was assisted in singing this number by a double quartet, soprano, Mrs. Paul Melvin, Miss Florence Thompson; alto, Mrs. Bert Schroeder and Miss Charlotte Taylor; tenor, Morgan Jones and Fred Smith and bass, Charles Richards and George Wyman. The humor of the librettist is enhanced by the skillful interpretative accompaniment supplied by the composer. This accompaniment was brilliantly presented by Mrs. Richard K. Allen at the piano last evening.

The Musical Arts Trio then played "En'ra'cte," by Broustet, "Romance" by Debussy and "Rondo" by Haydn.

In the final group the chorus, accompanied by the Musical Arts Trio, sang a "Fantasy on Stephan Foster's Songs," arranged by Harry Gilbert, with Mrs. Clark E. McClelland, soprano and Mrs. D. H. McQuiston, contralto, as soloists. They concluded with "At Twilight" by Thome and "The Music of Life" by Noble Cain.

Show Appreciation

During the brief intermission, Mrs. Dorothy Gormley Smith made a few announcements pertaining to the chorus and at the close of the program, Mrs. Robert Meade Patterson presented in a very charming manner a fine music stand to Mrs. William J. Caldwell, in appreciation for the time, work and patience put forth by her not only in the past months for this concert but throughout the years during which time she has made the chorus what it is today. Gifts were also presented by Mrs. James W. Moorehead to Mrs. Richard K. Allen and Miss Ruth Weir in appreciation of their time and able assistance.

Too much praise cannot be given to Mrs. William J. Caldwell, the directress who has shown her mastery as a musician and director and has risen to new heights in the public eye throughout the years. This is the tenth annual Spring Concert presented by the chorus, directed by Mrs. Caldwell, which also presents the "Messiah" annually at Christmas.

Also responsible for the successful performance were Mrs. Richard K. Allen and Edwin Lewis, who provided the accompaniment in their inimitable talented manner. To Miss Ruth Weir goes the thanks and appreciation of the chorus for her able accompaniments at rehearsals.

To Mrs. James W. Moorehead, executive and publicity advisor of the chorus, belongs much credit for the efficient management of numerous details involved in such a presentation. Miss Barbara Schulz acted as hostess in the absence of Mrs. Robert Fleming and the ushers were the Misses Evelyn Bernine, Elizabeth Emery, Margaret Graham and Kathryn Bittner and the Mesdames William Y. Gibson, J. E. Ginsberg, John F. Love, S. Glenn McCracken, Jay L. Reed and Paul Welsh.

In charge of decorations were the Mesdames G. C. Horschler, W. E. Horner, Jean Forrest, Jacob Jordan and Maude Forrester. Miss Charlotte Taylor was in charge of the seating arrangement.

Much credit is also due to the officers of the chorus whose unlimited time and patience go into all the last minute details entailed with running a chorus. They are Miss Louise Grove, secretary; Mrs. T. A. Grauel, librarian and Miss Maude Mitchell, treasurer.

New Castle has reason to be very proud of this chorus of men and women who have given unstintingly of their time since early in February to bring to the public this brilliantly performed concert.

ROAD MAPS ALL READY? BETTER CHECK THE CAR

We're coming into the annual vacation period, when folks like to go a-gyping over the highways of the United States. There's something beyond the next hill and that's why Americans keep on going.

But you may not make the next hill if the car isn't in shape. Not much fun in getting ready for a vacation if the car isn't just as ready as you.

Better bring it in and let us look it over.

TAKES OWN LIFE

PITTSBURGH, May 13.—(INS)—Police reported today that a partner in a Pittsburgh investment firm, Robert R. Crookston, 58, was found dead in his home yesterday with a self-inflicted bullet wound in his head.

Crookston, a partner in the firm of Singer, Deane & Scribner, left a note, contents of which were not disclosed by police.

Police said a spokesman for the firm could give no reason for Crookston taking his own life, other than to say he had been in ill health recently.

Plymouth, Mass., is the oldest town in New England. The Mayflower Pilgrims landed there, and made it the first permanent English colony north of Virginia.

There are 20 states in the Union in which there is a city or town called Portland. The two largest of these are in Maine and Oregon.

TRUMAN'S ORDER DELAYS STRIKE

PITTSBURGH, May 13.—(INS)—An executive order by President Truman today delayed, and may possibly avert, a strike on the Union Railroad set for tomorrow.

Mr. Truman ordered an emergency board to investigate the dispute between the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the railroad, a subsidiary of the U. S. Steel Corp.

The President's action automatically calls for suspension of strike action for 60 days.

The railroad workers are protesting interpretation of 15 rules, including work assignment and penalties for jobs performed over which the union claims jurisdiction.

Body Of Woman

Taken From River

PITTSBURGH, May 12.—(INS)—The coroner's office reported today that the body of a woman between 40 and 45 years of age was recovered from the Ohio river in Pittsburgh last night.

Morgue attendants said the body apparently had been in the water less than 24 hours, and that there were no marks of violence.

The woman wore a white gold wedding band with the inscription: "WR to MG—May 23, 1924."

She was dressed in a green polka dot dress, black coat and black suede shoes, the coroner reported.

Death Of Young Son

HAZLETON, Pa., May 13.—(INS)—A young dentist's wife was held under a general homicide charge today in the death of her 15-month-old son, whom she said had developed a "Freudian jealousy" for his sister.

Mrs. Martha Woodson Kalwa, 26, a former psychology student and school teacher, was arrested shortly after her son, Henry Charles, died in Hazleton hospital.

SHOOT'S HIS SON

HARMAR, Pa., May 13.—(INS)—Joseph A. Denny, 62, of Harmar, was being held today on a charge of felonious shooting.

Police said Hunter admitted shooting his son, John, 33, in the right leg because the son spent too much money "sparking" his girl friend.

WHITE SOX BUY VETERAN HURLER

CHICAGO, May 13.—(INS)—Veteran lefthander Clyde Shoun, who five years ago pitched a no-hitter for Cincinnati against the Boston Braves, has been purchased from the Braves by the Chicago White Sox.

13 years ago with the Chicago Cubs.

The Red Sox are not setting the baseball world afire yet this season, but neither are they mired down as they were in 1948 when for weeks they were struggling to get out of the second division.

Shoun, 34, broke into baseball

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

WES DAVEY and Bob C. Young, while motoring to visit a sick friend, "Rabbit" Hogue, at Pymatuning Lake, several days ago saw a groundhog with its head fastened in a tin can, crossing the East Brook-Leesburg blacktop highway. They captured the animal and took it to a gasoline station at Leesburg. Young clutched the rear part of the animal and Davey went to work on the tin can. The groundhog clawed at the can with its paws, and the tin can finally came off, after which the "whistler" was tuned loose. To City Detective Thomas Boyle: It is legal to take fish-bait, or bait-fish on Sunday. However, if taken on privately-owned land, permission of the owner must be first procured. . . . To "Doggie" Conway: After the major league clubs cut down to the player limit, it is 25. . . . Harry Campbell, Harlansburg, reports, a man caught a Slippery Rock trout with an odd "lure." He used the red paper string, unwrapped from a package of cigarettes, as "bait." . . . City and County Baseball league scorers should use a jet black pencil, write legibly, assign positions, total columns accurately, then write a brief introduction, showing how the game was won or lost. Those doing this will receive better service than those who present incomplete scores. . . . Billy Pozza is "making hay while the sun shines" by training with Tommy Yarosz, "the fighter of April," according to Ring magazine. Here & There talked to Johnny Loccisano yesterday, and he expressed the opinion: "Pozza is going to have a hard fight to beat Len Marshall, May 18. I would prefer him boxing Jackie Lyons, to Marshall," he said. The advance sale has picked up, because fans realize that having been beaten twice, Pozza will try desperately to win by a K. O.

Patton field, (South Lee Avenue) is taking on the form of a baseball field now, so fans who care to should hustle donations to President Len Gilbert of the City League. The ground already has been churned by a bulldozer and is being scraped. . . . Bernie Hanlon told Here & There a yarn yesterday of George Heckert beating Martin Lee back in the 90's, and of the Welsh Kid receiving a neat lacing from a "stranger" who came here, appealed for, and got a chance to battle the Welsh Kid. . . . Harry Evans, a dyed-in-the-wool fan is still keen for shorter rounds between amateurs. He believes it will provide more action. . . . Television sets are attracting boxing and wrestling fans, and may go far to help rejuvenate boxing and the mat game. Eddie Kosior day will be held May 19, and 250 Wampumites will honor their fellow-townsmen, who is a hurler for the Erie Sailors. He helped pitched Wampum to the County loop flag and also the championship of the county in the series with the Universals last season. . . . Joe Rick, local horseman, reports that since publication of the story about the Rick farm, dozens of harness race fans and fanettes have visited the picturesque spot, and he expects several hundred to visit the farm Sunday to see the horses jog and the many colts gambol in paddocks. There is no animal more entrancing to a youngster, than a frisky colt. . . . Eight races will be staged June 4, at the opening of Fort Miami track, Toledo. There will be no par-mutuel betting that night. The American Cancer society and Toledo Society for Crippled Children will be beneficiaries of the first night's racing which will end at Toledo, June 4.

Foster-Fusari Battle Tonight

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 13.—There is nothing draws the cash customers to a fight like the prospect of an old-fashioned slugfest.

That is why Madison Square Garden expects a capacity house tonight with a resultant $90,000 gate for the 10-rounder between Charley Fusari of Irvington, N. J., and Vince Foster of Omaha.

Taking them off their records, there is little to choose between these two belting welterweights and the odds—6 to 5 and pick 'em—fairly reflect the attitude of the fight fans.

Fusari has scored 36 knockouts in 63 professional fights. Foster has stiffened 19 of his 34 opponents, including a kayo over tough Tony Pellone who never before had been stopped.

Foster Hits Hard
Foster perhaps hits a little harder than Fusari but the New Jersey fighter has a slight edge in boxing ability. That is why Fusari is expected to win the decision if the bout goes the limit.

Fusari always has had some trouble meeting boys shorter than himself such as Foster. Foster, on the other hand, has had difficulty in handling boys who move in on him as Fusari surely will.

Both boys are easy enough to put on the canvas but both are hard to keep there. Fusari has been on the deck many times but he has never been stopped. Foster was stopped once by Don Lee. Foster wasn't knocked out but the bout was stopped because Foster had a severely cut eye.

School Track Team At Ambridge Trials

New Castle high school track team is participating in the WPIAL qualifying meet at Ambridge today.

The Red and Black speedsters have engaged in limited competition this year and have not been defeated by a WPIAL foe.

Struthers handed the locals their first setback Wednesday in a quadrangular meet at Struthers.

Those qualifying today will be eligible to participate in the WPIAL finals at Conneville on Saturday, May 21.

Schools from Lawrence, Butler and Beaver counties will compete at Ambridge today.

The boys, under the tutelage of coaches Bill Klee and Austin Cowmeadow, have been molded into a well-balanced track team with surprising strength in the relays and the middle distance events.

The competitors in the field events have been working on the team's biggest weak spot this week in hopes of annexing a team title today.

Wildcats Score Five In First To Take Easy Win; Mt. Jackson
Gets One Hit

Shenango finished its regular county league baseball schedule yesterday at Deshon field by trouncing Mt. Jackson 14 to 2.

The win gave the Wildcats an 8 and 2 record and a first place tie with Bessemer. A playoff game will be held next week on a neutral field to determine the section 9 representative in the WPIAL playoffs.

Shenango jumped into a five-run lead in the first inning on three singles and Dick Kroesen's triple plus a walk and two hit batsmen. Thereafter, Getchy, Kroesen and Badger combined to hold the Mounties to one hit while their mates pounded Bill Emery for nine more runs.

Johnny Allen hit safely three times while Badger and Kroesen each had two.

The summary: R. H. E.

Batteries—Mt. Jackson, B. Emery and Stephenson; Shenango, Getchy, Kroesen, Badger and Fedor.

Preakness Will Be Tough Race

Ponder Hopes To Repeat
Derby Win, Four Horses
Will Offer Challenge

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Sports Writer)

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Eight fair-to-dubious thoroughbreds, which conceivably might improve the breed to better advantage by wearing boxing gloves, will be formally named today for the 73rd running of Pimlico's hallowed Preakness at 1:30/16 miles.

Heading this quaint miscellany will be Ponder, the poor but honest stable "orphan" that roundly astonished his own connections a week ago by taking the Kentucky Derby.

Four Challengers
Practically committed to the same post-time rendezvous tomorrow at 5:15 p. m. EDT, were four colts that will give Ponder a race, namely, Capot, Palestinian, Old Rockport and Model Cadeet.

In the circumstances, tomorrow's $75,000 stake might easily be mistaken for just another version of the Shaughnessy play-offs. Yet, in some respects, there has been no Preakness like it in a three-quarter century of impelling and sprightly lore.

CASTLEWOOD WINS
Castlewood won a North County league game last night, defeating East Brook 8 to 1, and last Monday trimmed Edin-Hillers 11 to 2.

EASTERN CLUBS ENJOY BIG EDGE

First Intersectional Jaunts End, Pirates Are Scuttled By Brooklyn

By LES CONKLIN
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, 13.—Eastern clubs enjoyed a big edge over western teams in both major leagues in the first intersectional jaunts of the season which ended last night.

In the American league, the easterners' margin of 21 wins against 15 defeats was due largely to the amazing Washington Senators. The Nats' winning skein of nine games, longest of the season in either circuit, was snapped yesterday when they were beaten by Detroit, 2 to 1.

The pace-setting New York Yankees won six and lost three, while the Boston Red Sox and Philadelphia Athletics turned in only three victories apiece on the tour.

Red Sox Win
In the National league, the champion Boston Braves had the poorest record among the eastern teams, which won 22 and lost 13. And the Braves broke even in their eight intersectional clashes, at that. The New York Giants were tops with seven wins and two losses.

An 11th inning home run by Vern Stephens enabled the Boston Red Sox to nose out the White Sox, 2 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns, with three home runs, walloped the Athletics 9 to 3 in a night game.

Pirates Scuttled
The New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians were not scheduled.

In the National league, the New York Giants backed into a tie with the Boston Braves for first place when they were given a 3 to 0 point job by Kenny Raffensberger of the Reds.

Brooklyn advanced to within one game of the lead by trouncing Pittsburgh 11 to 6. Ralph Branca yielded 13 hits but went the route for the Brooks and became the leading pitcher in the big show with five wins and no defeats.

Bessemer Battles Wampum Tonight In League Feature

Second place in the Lawrence County league is at stake tonight when Wampum invades Bessemer. Three other tilts round out the complete card.

The Victory Club nine was upset by Hillsville Wednesday and are anxious to get back on the win trail. Bessemer's only defeat was in the opening day game with Lowellville. Neither team feels that it can afford another defeat until someone gives Lowellville its lumps.

Good Games
League-leading Lowellville has a busy time mapped out for it at Koppel. All clubs are pointing for the out-of-staters and Koppel has that potential which may lead to a blemish on the Ohioans' perfect slate.

Ellwood Vets and Hillsville will cross bats for fourth place in the circuit at Hillsville while St. Lucy will be out to quit the cellar with a win at New Galilee.

SUNDAY SCHEDULE
Lowellville at Wampum.
Koppel at St. Lucy.
Ellwood VFW at Bessemer.

MONDAY SCHEDULE
Hillsville at New Galilee.

Billy Desperate To Beat Marshall

Training Daily With Tommy Yarosz At Monaca, Called "Fighter of April"

Desperate because he lost two decisions, one to Jackie Lyons, and the other to Len Marshall, Billy Pozza will enter the ring against Len Marshall, Detroit, here, May 18, determined to win by a knockout.

He hopes to flash a right to the chin that will fell the taller Marshall and get back in the winning column.

In hope of doing this he trains daily with the fast, and clever Tommy Yarosz, Monaca, who by virtue of his decision over Dave Sands, Australian, in England, has been credited by Ring Magazine with being the "outstanding fighter of April."

If Pozza can learn to keep Tommy's left hand out of his face, he will stand a good chance of being able to block Marshall's left, which was much in evidence in their Ellwood City fight.

Pozza appeared slow in that fight. It was reported after the fight that he had not been feeling any too well, but since has fully recovered and is ready to make it a "Pozza night" come May 18. They are middleweights.

There ought to be a slugfest when big, phlegmatic Duke Peaks battles Sonny Marsh, a slugger of Niles while Jimmy Casson, Sharpshooter, will display his cleverness and sharp hitting against Bobby Mason of Youngstown, at 160.

Tony Arkett, Ellwood City, will take on Frankie Romeo, Sharpshooter at 132. Arkett is clever but in his Ellwood City fight, his judgment of distance was away off. However, he may be settled, so far as aim is concerned, next Wednesday.

Medalist for the night was Jimmy Dart with a scorching 36 card, while other low scores were turned in by: Fred Palmer 33, Bobby Hay 38, Ted Woodrow 39, and D. Hamilton 39.

THIRD U. P. WINS
The Third U. P. church softball team defeated the First Baptist team 12 to 5 last night at Deshon Big Field, with Kenny Myers the winning pitcher and with Weller the loser. Home runs were hit by Robinson and Myers for Third U. P. team. Next Tuesday the Third U. P. will play Wesley at Rose Avenue.

Sears Golf League At Castle Hills

The Sears Roebuck male employees have organized an inter-store golf league, and will play at the Castle Hills course this summer. The league will play every Wednesday. There are four teams.

The team captains are: team No. 1, Lee Fry; team No. 2, J. Donston; team No. 3, Jim Criss; team No. 4, Bob Griffith. The No. 1 team after two nights of play lead with 10 1/2 points. Don Crowe is the starter for the league.

In the Wednesday match this week a grudge battle, Griffith edged Cugini by one point in a hotly contested nine holes.

UMPIRES ASSIGNED

The following umpires have been assigned the city and county leagues for Sunday, May 15: City league—At Croton, T. DeMaio and Ferrante; at Ryantown, Canale and Morella; at Universals, A. Conti and Priscarro; at West Pittsburgh, T. Conti and Hardisky; at P. & L. E. field, Orlando and Rotunno.

(Special to The News)
VANDERGRIFT, May 13.—The Vandergrift Pioneers behind Frank Sabines 4 hit hurling made it two straight over New Castle here last night by a 6-to-4 score before a small crowd of 352 fans.

The MA champs teed off on former Pioneer Frank Wagner for 2 runs in the second, three in the third, and another in the fifth.

New Castle scored twice in the third to tie the game, Traspuesto singled, and went to second when Stocker walked, Wagner sacrificed both men, and Tufts walked to load the bases. Mongiello was walked, forcing in Traspuesto. Franiak forced Mongiello, but Stocker tallied. Wagner was safe at second on a two-base error by Paul Scheuch. Two infield outs got him home.

Stocker Double

Cholewa drew a walk in the sixth but was forced at second by Traspuesto. Stocker doubled to center, to plate Traspuesto.

Walks to Joe Lonnett and Joe Prusiecki, and Joe Restic's double gave the Nats 2 in the second. Bob Wigles doubled, with the bases loaded produced 3 more in the third. A double by Lonnett and Wigles singles accounted for Vandergrift final run.
